Dear Families,
I would like to take the time to say welcome to A Step Above Dance & Music Academy. I truly hope your dancers enjoy their classes!

I would also like to take this time to introduce myself. My name is Tami Bisbee and I am the owner/director of A Step Above. I currently live in Morrisonville with my beautiful children, Kira (16) and Lana (13), as well as my husband, Jason.

I grew up in McFarland and kept myself busy with dance and softball. I ended up going to UW-Madison for college where I began as a business major. After realizing that my passion still lay with dance, I ended up switching to a BFA in dance when the business school would not let me double major. Throughout college I continued to teach dance and quickly decided that was where my passion lies. After I graduated, the owners of A Step Above approached me to sell the studio and I became the official 3rd^{rdrd} owner in June 2004.

I feel so incredibly lucky in life to be able to pursue my passion of dance and share it with so many people. I work very hard to make A Step Above an incredible place to learn how to dance. Along with the help of my incredible faculty and staff, we hope your dancer learns excellent technique, makes valuable friendships, builds their confidence, learns life lessons through dance, and, of course, has fun! I really strive for A Step Above to be a positive family environment where kids are not rushed to be older than they are and are careful with their developing bodies.

If you see me around, please feel free to introduce yourself to me or just say hi. I would love to get to know all of our families more. If ever you need to reach out to me, please leave a message with the front desk staff, and I will be in touch as soon as I can.

Thank you so much for choosing to dance with us, and I am so excited to be entering my 22nd year of ownership!

Sincerely,
Tami Bisbee
